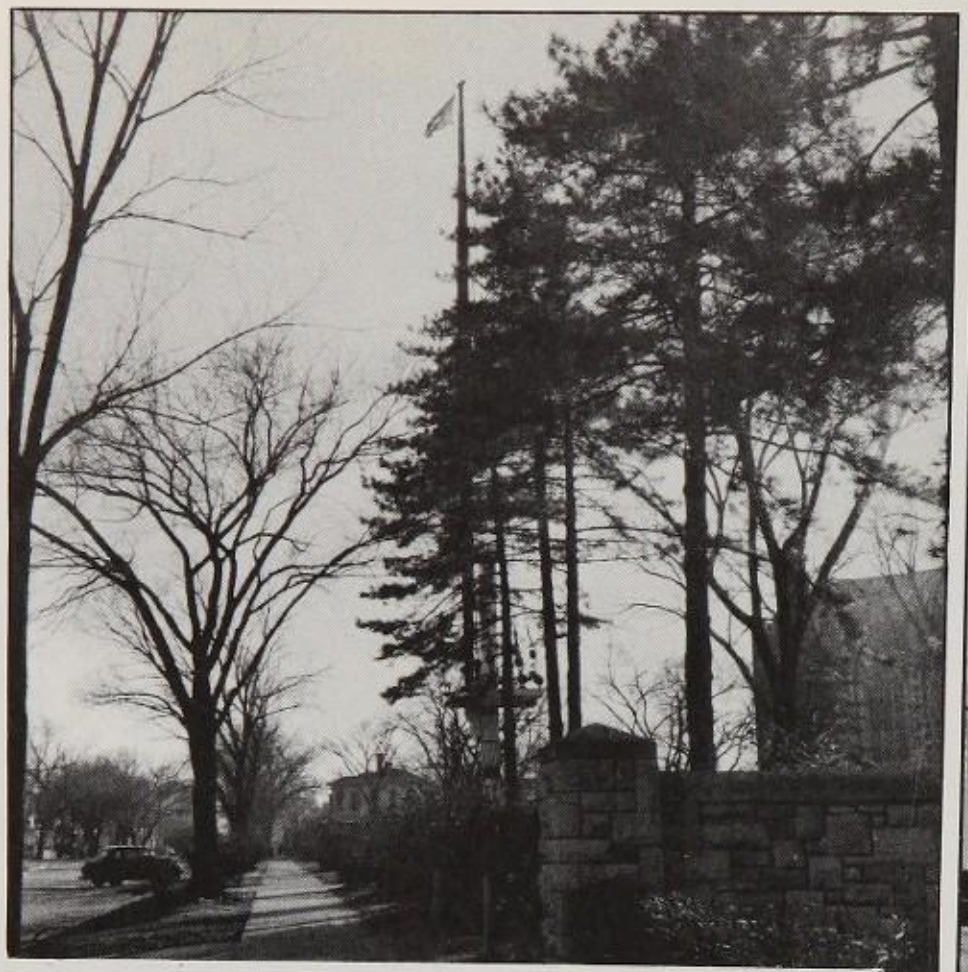
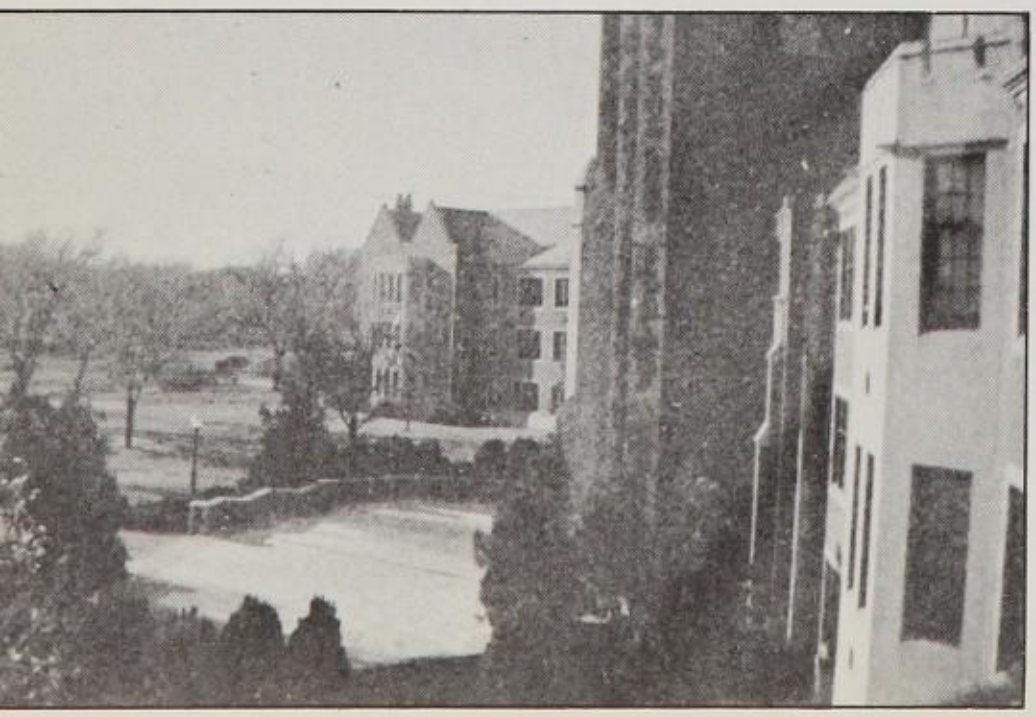
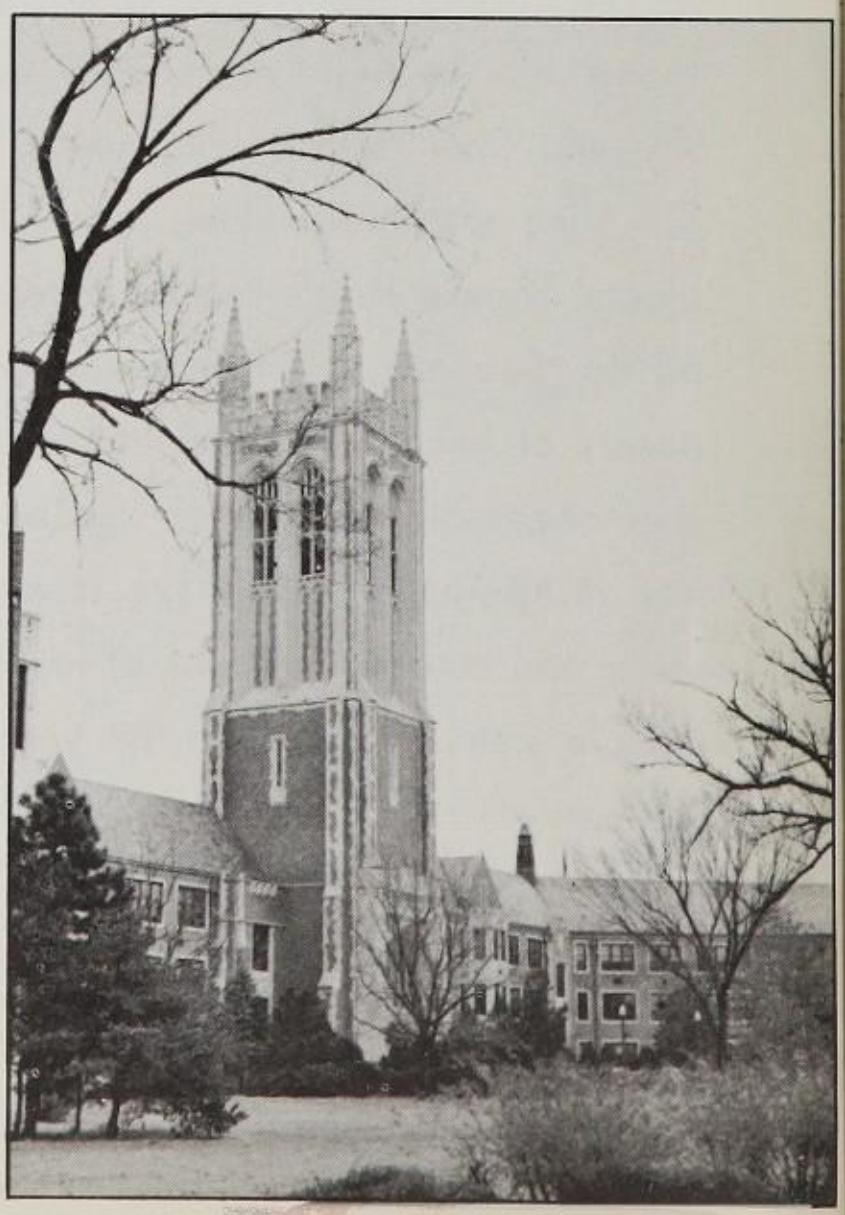
FOREWORD

From the first day of school in the Fall, when Topeka High's grounds are strewn with russet leaves, through the Winter, when the snow-capped tower lifts its head majestically against the gray sky, and when Spring's first warm breath lures the flowering crab trees along the walks into brilliant bloom, Topeka High's beauty is constant. Through all the Seasons, she remains a symbol, the four points of her tower signifying leadership, scholarship, citizenship, and honor. To us who love her, she is ageless. Though years may crumble her walls, and countless millions of feet wear away her marble stairways, through the years the memories we carry with us will keep her always as she is today . . . noble, fine, and beautiful.







Lots of Luck in the future. Always remember radio broadcasting. Have fun. Bill Gardner

Sponsoring an All-School Party that was tops, arguing about letter sweaters for debaters, and presenting an exciting Homecoming Pageant, the Student Council had a busy year. Besides these activities, the Student Council also sponsored Dad's Night, Pajama Top Day, and College Day, and voted on many other bills for the entire school.

Led by Carl Seufert, Student Congress President, Bob Bradstreet, Vice-President and Speaker of the Council, and John H. Kelly, Faculty Sponsor, the council elected officers early in the fall. Jerry Hutchison was elected Vice-Speaker; Betty Carmean, Treasurer; Charlene Ulsh, Secretary; and John Carlson, Council Attorney.

Councils compose CONGRESS

An integral part of Topeka High's student government is the Representative Council. Guided by Miss Lois Fergus, Faculty Sponsor, and headed by Speaker Neil McNeill, this Council functions in a similar manner to the United States House of Representatives.

Composed of 66 homeroom representatives, the Council meets once a month. At their first meeting, members elected Neil, speaker; Dean Smith, vice-speaker; Nancy Taggart, Secretary; and Geraldine Dykes, treasurer.

Since legislation concerning money originates in the House of Representatives, similarly the Representative Council was responsible for the sale of Activity tickets, of which a total of 1462 were sold.

Ratifying bills passed by the Student Council is another duty of the Representative Council. Legislation concerning school problems is discussed and voted on.

ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Advisory Council got off to a good start this year and made great progress in achieving their aims. Under the leadership of Richard Douglas, President, Mary Washington, Vice-President, Ethel Chiles, Senior Representative, Amos Howard, Junior Representative, and Ernest Douglas, Sophomore Representative, the council has discussed and acted on problems facing them.

They started out the first part of the year in full swing, sponsoring two varsities, and holding several meetings with the student body.

SENIOR GIRLS' COUNCILS

As an all-around service group, Senior Girls' Council has put forth its time to make successful such activities as the Sophomore Induction, the Sophomore Tea, and Open House.

Chosen for their leadership and scholastic ability, the 34 girls are under the guidance and sponsorship of Miss Annabel Pringle, Dean of Girls. Throughout the year, they serve as hostesses, guides and aides for various events.

"Sugar 'n Spice" meetings — all-girl gatherings — attract crowds with topics on "The Ideal Boy" and "The Ideal Girl." Senior Girls' Council members are on hand for the Vesper Tea at graduation time, the All-Girl Party, and College Day activities.

Working along with the council is the Senior Girls' Advisory Council, chosen also for leadership. Composed of 16 members, these girls worked more individually, but each council has set forth the various activities as its responsibilities and has won honor for its service.

Preceding the Homecoming game, the air was thick with speculation concerning the identity of the Homecoming Queen and her attendants. During the half, gaily colored balloons and enthusiastic cheers replaced the rumors when the football players' choice was revealed as Bonnie Frommer, Homecoming Queen, and attendants as Evelyn Stahl and Gerry Dykes.

The honored girls were escorted to the throne, especially made for the event, by Carl Seufert, President of the Student Congress, Neil McNeill, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and Bob Bradstreet, Vice-President of the Student Congress. They were given the traditional chrysanthemums, and then were escorted to a reserved box in the bleachers where they viewed the rest of the game.

Our opponent for the evening, Wyandotte High School, was invited to attend the varsity following the game.

Troy closes victorious season in FOOTBALL

Quick opening plays of the T formation set the keynote of the Trojan offense this year. With speedsters Dean Boyles and Rollo Gurss toting the ball and a light, fast charging line up front, Trojan fans never lacked action, whether in home games at the Moore Bowl or on out-of-town fields.

On the power side Troy had driving Dick Lyle operating from the fullback slot, and a pair of huge tackles in Sophomore Darrell Hill and Senior George Kisner, both tipping the beam over 200 pounds.

Consistent ground gainer for the gridsters was the fundamental line buck with the halfback going over guard. The only really intricate play was the crossblocking by the linemen against heavier opponents.

Relying mostly on fundamentals, the '48 Trojan gridders gave the enthusiastic crowds plenty to yell about.

With one of the lightest and least experienced teams in recent years to work with, Varsity Coaches Bob Briggs and Mel Seelye molded a grid aggregation which ranked fifth best among all AA schools in Kansas.

Trojans started slow, losing their first two, but after trouncing Emporia 19-0 went on to win six of the next seven games to bring their record up to seven won and three lost for the season.

The Hutchinson Salt Hawk's double wing offense proved too much for the Trojans their first time out as Topeka went down 14-12 at Hutchinson. Dean Boyles salvaged some glory for Troy by taking a kickoff on his own ten yard line and racing the remaining 90 yards for a touchdown.

Finally breaking into the win column, Topeka romped over Emporia 19-0, and then traveled to Kansas City to trounce Ward High 20-0.

Great Bend's Panthers went down before Topeka 14-6, and the Trojans made their Homecoming a success by whipping Wyandotte 20-7.

The Wyandotte game ended the regular season, but, because of its good record, Topeka was asked to play in a post season game Thanksgiving Day at Clay Center. Proving worthy of their invitation, Trojans rolled over their hosts 27-14 to wind up play for the season.

Three Trojan gridders won recognition for their play in the 1948 season. Co-captain John Knoll copped the First team All-State center berth, and halfback Dean Boyles and end Bill Roberts were voted to the Third All-State team.

In amassing their record scores for the year, Topeka used many underclassmen. Sixteen squad members are returning to bolster Troy's hopes for next season.

Made up of boys lettering in sports, the "T" Club of Topeka High School provides an organization of some 50 boys. "T" Club initiation is one of the highlights of the year, with initiates being made to do whatever the members tell them to. Between the hard work and time put in to earn a "T" sweater, and the good-natured hazing just before the initiation, membership into the club is considered one of the biggest honors a boy can earn.

"T" Club President John Knoll was elected in the fall along with Bill Roberts, Vice-President, and Dean Smith, Secretary. Faculty Sponsor is D. L. Erwin.

Much credit for season's scores goes to COACHES

Men behind the sport scene at Topeka High are the coaches.

Head coaches had assistance from faculty men who spent much of their time aside from their regular teaching duties helping the mentors mold their teams.

Bob Briggs took over the head football coach's job with Mel Seelye assisting with the varsity. Marvin Bayless, and Vernon Hayes guided the "B" and "C" teams with the assistance of James Colton, Chet Davenport, Robert Gray, Lloyd Kistler, and Leo Thomas.

D. L. Erwin, led the track team, while swimming coach Chuck Mills and Bob Briggs helped with the cindermen.

Spring sports were ably guided by Frank McGrath, baseball, Floyd Holcomb, wrestling W. J. Barnett, tennis, and E. L. Fink, golf.

Officers and sponsors organize PEP CLUB

Under the supervision of Sally Morrison (President), Joan Culver (Vice-President), Bonnie Barrett (Secretary), Nancy Taggart (Treasurer), Miss Mildred Wells and Miss Ruth Jacob (Sponsors) the Topeka High Pep Club organized and led cheering at basketball and football games.

The Honor Pep Club, formed of girls who had earned their Honor Pep Club sweaters and emblems through faithful service, was headed by Barbara Taylor, Chairman, and Mrs. Larry Adkins, Sponsor.

Leading the cheering, the six "A" team cheerleaders and the three "B" team cheerleaders bounced through the seasons with outstanding energy. Topeka High's yells were noticeable not only for their originality, but for the pep with which they were led.

"A" team cheerleaders were Judy Carothers, Margaret McWilliams, Mary Jane Trulove, Jerry Doyle, Ned Hutchison, and Max Whitson.

"B" team cheerleaders, chosen from the underclassmen, were Jim Allen, Sue Anderson, and Becky Thacher.

PLAY CADETS

Taking tickets at plays, handing out programs, and seeing that the mechanics of the arrangements for plays are carried out smoothly, the Play Cadets this year are to be commended for their unfailing and trustworthy work. Miss Evelyn McCauley was faculty sponsor.

GAME CADETS

Selling and taking tickets at basketball and football games, and selling programs too, the Game Cadets organized this year with Kenneth Powers as their faculty leader. Indispensable to the organizing of games, the Game Cadets had an eventful season with both the home games and the Regionals in basketball being held here.

INKSLINGERS

Fourteen boys taking printing and making above average grades in the subject this year formed a club called the Inkslingers. The boys, sponsored by Francis D. Modlin, printing instructor, had the job of doing special printing, such as basketball and play programs. The Inkslingers' Club is on its way to becoming a lasting Trojan institution.

USHER CLUB

Mrs. Marvin H. Hess, Sponsor, says that the Usher Club's 50 members are chosen with an eye to their ability to smile. This ability is evident whenever a school play, a concert, a touring play, or any other function takes place in the auditorium. The club is an excellent example of real "courtesy kids" who serve the school faithfully and well.

Troy honors its 'V.I.P.' in ADMINISTRATORS

Working as a unit on all matters of school policy and leading more than 1800 Trojans skillfully through a busy year, Topeka High's fine administrators are truly to be classified as "V.I.P."—Very Important Persons. They are active in Topeka civic affairs, linking the school with parent-groups, church interests, and business men, in this way providing students with the friendly understanding of adults whose places they will someday take over.

Dr. Kenneth McFarland, as Superintendent of Schools, has the assistance of M. J. Whitson and Mrs. Thelma Mifflin, Clerk and Business Manager. President Kenneth Hobbs heads the Board of Education, which includes Vice-President A. H. Saville, Charles Bennett, Marlin Casey, Mrs. David Neiswanger, and Kelsey Petro.

E. B. Weaver, Principal, heads the High School group, Dr. Giles Theilmann, serving as head of the Guidance group, is an Assistant Principal. Dr. Don A. Walter, in charge of Curriculum, also is an Assistant Principal. Miss Annabel Pringle is Dean of Girls, and Kenneth H. Meyers is Dean of Boys.

FACULTY

Office secretaries: Carolyn Lightbody, Helen Graves, Martha Pitt
Seated: Gertrude McIver

Reinforced with five new teachers and one new secretary, the Topeka High faculty began its duties last September without the last-minute changes that had become almost habitual since the beginning of war conditions. The year that followed was busy to the brim with sponsoring exra-curricular activities of the school as well as maintaining Topeka High's standards in the class rooms.

New teachers were Bill Adams, English; Robert Gray, mathematics; Miss Ruth Jacob, physical education; Miss Carolyn Lightbody, secretary; Robert McKibben and L. H. Moulden, social studies.

New courses introduced or revived included aeronautics, boys' cooking, family relations, human relations, personal use sewing, and radio announcing.

In the last year three of the faculty were married but continued with their work. Miss Gertrude Jones became Mrs. Buford McIver; Miss June Hays, Mrs. Wayne Lindsey; and Miss Gladys Brooks, Mrs. Marvin Hess.

Teachers whose pictures are not included on the following pages are Miss Rosella Kerr, English; J. E. Lund, commerce; F. D. Modlin, printing; L. H. Moulden, aeronautics and social studies; and Leo Thomas, commerce.

"Backward" theme carries out

ALL-GIRL PARTY

"No matter how young a prune may be he's always getting stewed," echoed through the cafeteria at the first of the year when the All-Girl Party got into full swing.

Sponsored by the Senior Girls' Council and Miss Annabel Pringle, the party's diversified program contained talent in the form of songs, dances, and a skit built around the theme, "Since they stole the spitoon from the corner saloon."

Fascinating effects were achieved when everyone came "backwards." This was continued throughout the evening, with shirts and jeans wrong-side-out, and people dancing back to back.

With Darlene Heberling and Jeanne Bowman serving as announcers, Carol Heath throbbed "Body and Soul" in a slinky black formal, while encore after encore was demanded of Norma Jean Bledsoe, who tap danced in a flashy western outfit. The program ended with "Doodlee-e-do" as sung by Marilyn Mankle, Delores, "Woo-ga-ma-choo-ga" Atkins, and Carolyn Oliver.

Pop corn, cokes, and a "hot" juke box rounded out the evening.

Official duties fall to the lot of PROCTORS

NURSE'S PROCTORS

Aiding Mrs. Fern Taylor, Topeka High's registered nurse, the Nurse's Proctors gave excellent service. They are selected for judgment, personality, and honesty.

Row 1. Rogers, Brock, Smith, Pollom, Clardy, Knapp
Row 2. Brandenburg, Musser, Partridge, Rivera, Sawyer, Burkhardt

LUNCHLINE PROCTORS

Fourth hour order every day was aided by the Lunchline Proctors, who helped keep hungry Trojans from stampeding the cafeteria lines. Five boys met their responsibilities with tact and a high degree of success.

OFFICE PROCTORS

Call slips by the score were delivered by this active group of girls. On hand every hour to look up needed names and find the people wanted, the Office Proctors were an integral part of school operation.

Juniors stage first play of the season

Hilarious youth at its gayest was the theme of the play, "Junior Miss," sponsored by the Junior class.

With Pat Kirk interpreting the role of captivating Judy Graves and Marilyn Towler in the part of her chum, Fuffy Adams, teen-age life was viewed from every possible angle.

Judy cavorted through episodes ranging from an "ex-criminal" uncle to her first pair of heels and coped admirably with all situations.

The entire cast was on its toes to keep the audience charmed by the delightful antics of such characters as Hilda, Lois Graves, and J. B. Curtis.

The use of Gene Gooding, a Senior, as Harry Graves, sets a new precedent in Topeka High's dramatic world. It is the beginning of a plan to combine the drama clubs with the classes, thus providing even better plays on the stage of Topeka High School in the future.

THESPIANS

Those students whose work in dramatic productions has been particularly outstanding, or whose lines in a play amount to 75 or more, are eligible to join Thespians. The National Thespian Society has granted Topeka High a Charter and Chapter Number 210.

Carl Seufert last Fall was elected president of Thespians, Max Whitson, vice-president, and Jeanne Bowman, secretary.

MASQUE AND WIG

Everyone who works on Topeka High's theatrical productions, no matter how unspectacular his job, can be sure of recognition. The Masque and Wig club is not made up entirely of actors in the plays, as the stage crew, publicity men, property managers--all are members.

Although the club holds no meetings, it serves as a reminder of everyone whose name has appeared on a play program, and of many whose names did not.

First semester memories highlight

FALL WORLD

Having waded through the responsibility of putting out this paper for you for one semester, we should like to review some of the outstanding highlights.

Meeting us our first week at school was the bargain sale of Activity tickets, plus the news of various summer activities.

In the next few weeks, election fever rose to its highest pitch, and all the girls had a "wacky party."

After the voters once again had cast their ballots, the Juniors took over and presented a masterful production of "Junior Miss." And Senior Gene Gooding stole the show! P. S.—The gals paid, this week.

With their consecutive victory string at three, the football squad chose Bonnie Frommer as Homecoming Queen with attendants Gerry Dykes and Evelyn Stahl also watching the Trojans pick up their sixth win of the season.

After the "best All-School party program in years," the coronation of Queen Jeanne Bowman and King John Knoll took the spotlight. The coronation proved a fitting climax to a "perfect" evening.

These events and others like them afforded the material from which the fall World staff, Walter Menninger, Editor, and Donna Deck, Business Manager, fashioned news for you for a semester.

QUILL-SCROLL, JR. PRESS

QUILL AND SCROLL

One of the highest honors that may be attained by students is to become a member of the International Honorary Society of High School Journalists, Quill and Scroll. Only those associated with high school publications, either the annual or the newspaper, are eligible for membership. Each student nominated must submit an original piece of writing to the national secretary before being accepted. This year the officers are Walter Menninger, President; Jeanne Bowman, Vice-President; and Jancy Hunter, Secretary.

JUNIOR PRESS

While scurrying after ads, identifying names, typing, folding papers, and doing various other jobs, members of the Junior Press Club have learned a lot about journalism. They had their moment of glory while publishing the World themselves.

When pins were distributed at the close of the year, each member received them proudly, knowing he had worked hard to win them.

Officers were: Virginia Bartos, President; Don Brown, Vice-President; and Marie Payton, Secretary.

Girl athletes join TROY JANES

The Troy Jane Club, a girls' organization, has completed its third year of existence.

Among the after-school activities, tournaments were held in soccer, volleyball, basketball, ping-pong, archery, bowling, softball, badminton, and deck tennis. In these intramurals there have been more participants and interest shown than in the first two years. Swimming and tumbling clubs also had many entrants. Troy Janes also opened a snack bar in the main hall after school.

Senior Leaders, girls outstanding in physicial education, were on hand to help in every activity. The club is sponsored by Miss Mildred Wells and Miss Ruth Jacob, Physical Education teachers.

Like a flashback to pioneer days, the Troy Jane Husking Bee overtook Topeka High on the evening of November 12. Upon coming in the door, girls were greeted by the smell of fresh baled hay and buttered popcorn, while juke box music set all feet to tapping.

Campaign stunts liven

ELECTION TIME

Election board, supervised by Hugh Greer, Election Commissioner, carefully checks ballots

Election time, and what a contest! Posters replaced plaster, shy sophs became orators, speeches filled the October air—the race was on for the many offices open to the students of Topeka High. Candidates went about campaigning in a vigorous way, leaving no ear undeafened to promises and pleas.

Under the authority of Hugh Greer, Election Commissioner, assisted by Sally Morrison, Election Clerk, Miss Ethel Frizell, Faculty Adviser, and the student election boards, the election moved smoothly along. The primary served to narrow the field, making competition just that much keener. After the thrills provided by ties and one-vote margins, the final election was awaited in excited anticipation.

Then came the big day, with the usual smiles, tears, handshaking, and congratulations. It was all over; it was all wonderful; it was all truly American in sincerity, fun, and sportsmanship.

Something new—

Fall means new beginnings for

THE SOPHOMORE CLASS

The Sophomore class of '51, that's us! Our Sophomore year was one new experience after another. Seems that we never got breathing space. First came enrollment—those big halls and BIG Seniors. Our first thought was, "Help! I'll get lost!" but soon we were as experienced at hall wandering as the Seniors themselves.

We had our first finals. We came through them, weak but alive, in time to see our first operetta, "Sweethearts." We attended all the class plays, too, and we still have those dog-eared programs.

Yes, our Sophomore year was hectic but fun.

School's interest extends to VARSITIES

Sponsored by various groups such as Advisory Council, Pep Club, Varsity Cadets, and Senior Girls' Council, varsities played an important part in the Trojan school year. After football and basketball games, Trojans and guests trooped down to the cafeteria where icy cokes, fresh buttered pop corn and "just right" juke box music greeted them.

From then on, the evening progressed from impromptu square dances, Charleston and Rhumba solos in admiring circles, and the Sophomore "Balboa" specialties, to dreamy last dances with muted music announcing the end.

Outstanding in the minds of all who attended them, the Topeka High varsities are remembered as times of fun and friendly comradeship.

Fall brings bent bows and flying arrows to front lawn

Archers improve skills for GIRLS' GYM

The girls' gym department provides not only classes in gym for girls, but outside recreational activities in which all interested may participate. In the Fall, Topeka High's front lawn is filled with targets, bows, flying arrows, and green-suited girls.

Inside activities include volley ball, basketball, and square dancing, with each sport receiving one six-weeks period. Softball and field hockey are played outside on warm days, while the skills of these sports are practiced in the girls' gym.

The column "Girls in Green," which is devoted to news of girls' physical education, appears every week in the World.

Miss Mildred Wells and Miss Ruth Jacobs, Sponsors, are assisted by Senior Leaders, a group of girls who have earned this honor by excellent work in sports.

Although only one year of gym is required, many girls enroll for advanced work in sports and modern dance.

In their most successful season in three years, Trojan debaters copped two tournaments and placed in five out of the seven which they entered. Topeka garnered first place trophies in the Atchison and District tournaments, and placed fifth in the state.

Competing in tournaments where as many as 75 teams were entered, besides winning two, the debaters placed third at Emporia, third at Wyandotte, and fourth at Hutchinson.

This year's question for debate was, "Resolved: that the United Nations now be revised into a federal world government." Coach Walter Russell's two-speaker team lost only seven of 45 debates during the season.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

Organized as a service group to aid in the interests of the Red Cross at Topeka High School, the Junior Red Cross Council has done everything from planning and staging assemblies to packing a chest for overseas. Officers include Bob Bradstreet, President; Marilyn Miller, Vice-President; Jack Green, Secretary; and Miss Ruth Grandon, sponsor.

The chapter this spring entertained at luncheon the editor of the national Junior Red Cross publications; student and faculty representatives from grade and junior highs also were present.

Members for the council are chosen from the incoming Sophomore class and remain members throughout their Junior and Senior years.

Winter lays accent on

THE JUNIOR CLASS

As Winter lies between Fall and Spring, so the Junior class is the "middle" class at T.H.S. The newness of belonging is gone but the thrill is still here. We've sponsored our first play, two wonderful formals, the Junior-Senior Prom—and they've been smashing successes.

We've seen our teams through victory and defeat, and we've laughed and joked with the rest of the school. We've had a swell time being "middle-of-the-road" Juniors.

Mrs. Fayeben Wolfe at mid-year served as Junior Sponsor in place of Miss Irene Kloppenberg, who taught afternoon classes at Boswell Junior High.

CO-OP

A new club organized this year and open to students in Cooperative Business Education, the Co-op Club had as its climaxing activity the entertainment of delegates to the national convention of Distributive Education. The club sponsors are Mrs. Larry Adkins and Carl Nall.

F.H.A.

Composed of girls in the Home Economics department, the F.H.A. chapter in Topeka High stands for "Future Homemakers of America." With Miss Lois Dickey as their adviser, the girls sponsored a series of talks this fall from women fashion and homemaking experts. They also packed a box to send overseas.

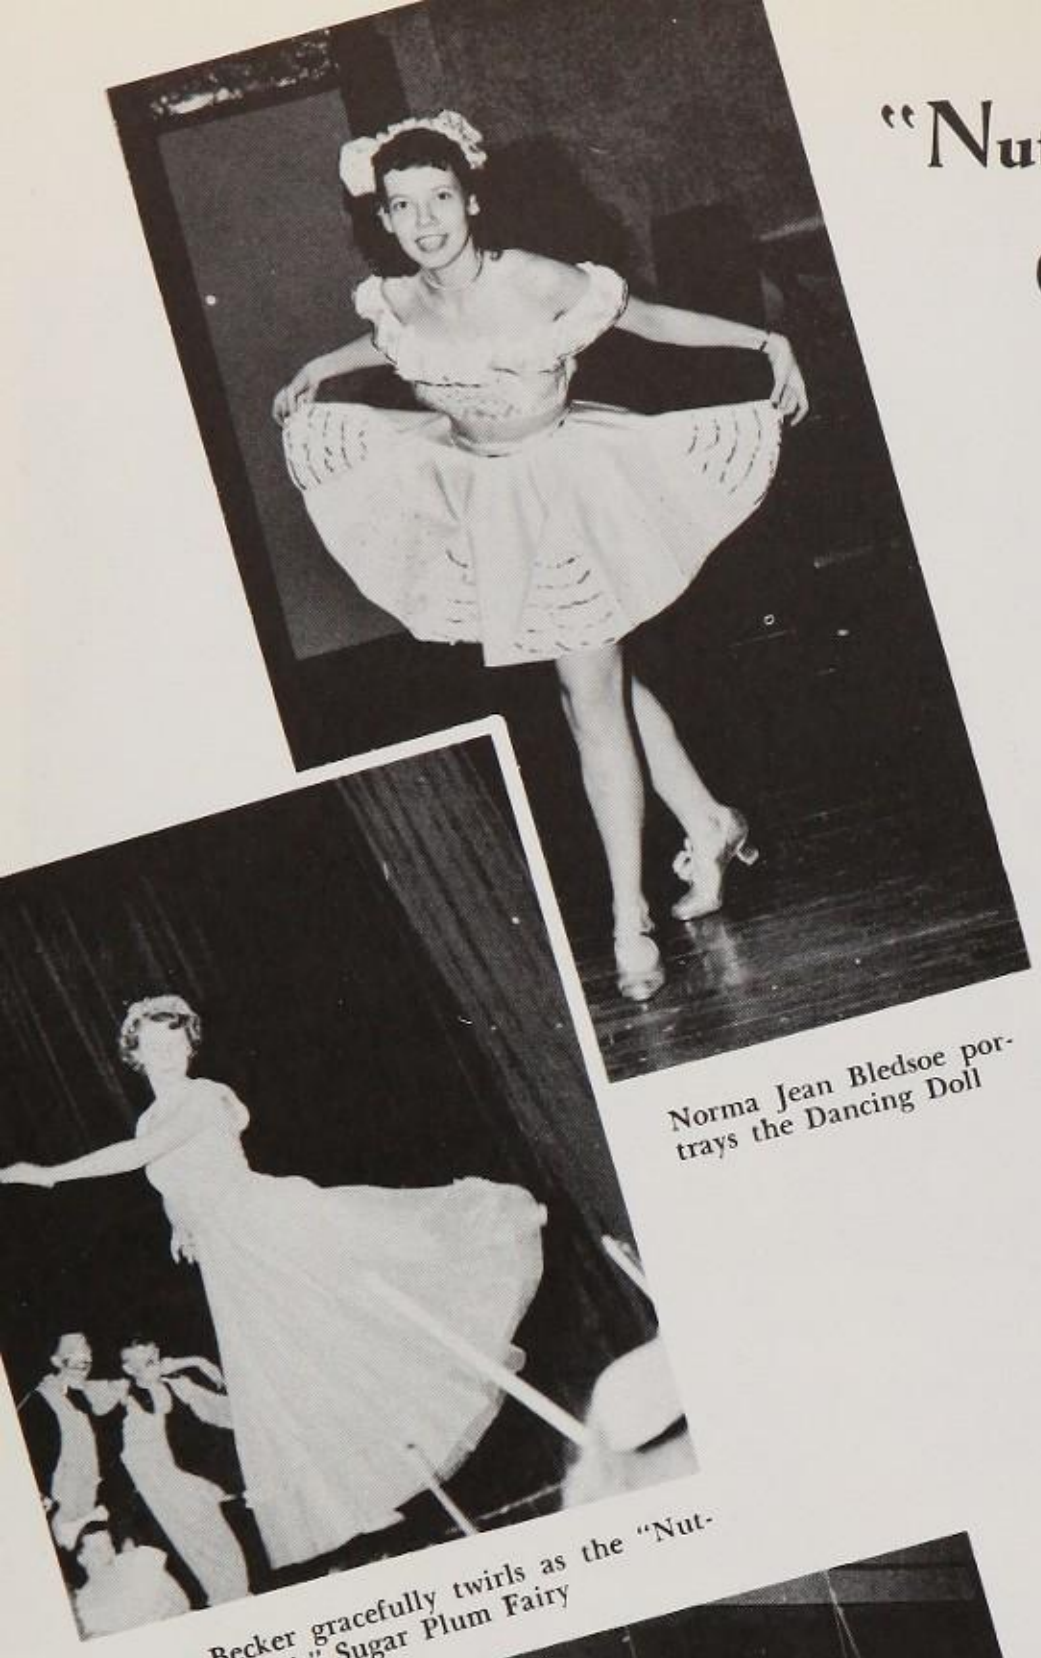
"Nutcracker Suite" adds color to CHRISTMAS PAGEANT



Norma Jean Bledsoe portrays the Dancing Doll

Angels sing, a new star burns in the heavens, shining fir trees delight small children, and once again the world unites in harmony to celebrate the birthday of the Prince of Peace. The story of this miracle formed the theme of our 1948 Christmas pageant.

As the scene opened in an average American home, we heard a mother reading to her child. Magically the curtain drew back, revealing pictures of these ceremonies in France, England, and Mexico.

Lilting strains of the "Nutcracker Suite" furnished a background for the fairy tale ballet where Christmas toys come alive and dance.

Lastly, we saw the beloved scene of the Nativity--the lowly manger and the tiny Babe. Carols from the combined choruses filled our ears. Our Christmas pageant with its beauty of meaning brought to Troy the true spirit of peace and good will.

ALL-SCHOOL PARTY

Soft lights and music in the background, and Jerry Grover and Dodi Atkins "Confess"-ing in the foreground opened this year's All-School Party program, under the direction of Miss Ruth Grandon.

With a drugstore as the setting, those two "blithe spirits," Theo Westlund and Miriam Johnson, surprised and amused their audience with their "Svedish" accent.

Acts then appeared in quick succession, each one contrasting with the others: Max Whitson and Sally Morrison in a comedy song and dance duo—Judy Carothers and Margaret McWilliams imitating Crosby and Astaire—Carolyn and Julia Oliver harmonizing and doing a wicked Charleston—Jackie Becker and Jancy Hunter as "kiddies" with lollypops and aided by "villian" Skip Dickinson and suave Ned Hutchison—the climax with Marilyn Mankle and Dale Pressman doing the rhumba while Martha Herrick sang "Begin the Beguine." All entertained and drew spontaneous applause.

All then retired to the cafeteria, where they greeted the royalty, danced to the music of Jack Zimmerman's band and reflected on the "most sensational All-School Party ever!"

Big moment discloses ALL-SCHOOL

Tension was great during the weeks leading up to the All-School Party. After the first balloting to decide the King, Queen, and attendants, the five top-ranking boys and five top girls were voted on again. Much speculation resulted about the outcome of the voting, but the results were kept secret until the night of the party. After the last act in the program, "newsboy" Johnny Reppart came on the stage announcing that Topeka High's royalty had been chosen. Bob Soulen, acting as announcer, came forward to the mike and introduced the royalty as they emerged from the versatile juke box.

Rambler Queen Madalyn Bryant then came forward with King Richard Douglas. The climax was reached when Queen Jeanne Bowman and King John Knoll were presented. Crowns of white carnations adorned the heads of Queen Jeanne and Queen Madalyn.

His Majesty

JOHN KNOLL

King of the All-School Party

John Knoll, King of the All-School Party, has proved his worth not only in the many extra-curricular activities in which he has participated, but in the many and varied lasting friendships he has made in Topeka High with a friendly grin and welcome "Hi"!

Besides being a member of the Representative Council, John was elected president of the "T" Club this year, and received the football rating of All-State Center for Kansas. In December he was elected to the highest honor that can come to a Topeka High Senior, that of All-School Party King.

Her Majesty
JEANNE BOWMAN
Queen of the All-School Party

Jeanne Bowman set early the pattern her high school life was to take —she was elected Vice-President of the Sophomore class. In the following years she became Junior Representative, Pep Club Secretary, Editor of the 1949 Sunflomer, Vice-President of Quill and Scroll, and Thespian Secretary. She was also a member of Senior Girls' Council and the Honor Pep Club.

Then Jeanne climaxed her honors with the one which best reflects the many friendships she has enjoyed at Topeka High — Queen of the All-School Party!

Good luck always, a good pal.

MADALYN BRYANT

Rambler All-School Party Queen

MADALYN BRYANT, even in her Junior year, entered the ranks of royalty when she was chosen Rambler Homecoming Queen. This year she was elected Rambler Pep Club President and served actively in the Phyllis Wheatley Girl Reserves. In view of her many honors and her winning personality, Madalyn was deservedly elected to this crowning honor—Rambler Queen of the All-School Party.

RICHARD DOUGLAS, Rambler King of the All-School Party, this year took over the reins of the Colored Advisory Council and served as its President, discharging his duties always with skill, good judgment, and cheerfulness. For two years a member of the Rambler basketball team, Richard showed that in athletics, as well as in social life and school government, he really is a king.

Top regional honors
'A' TEAM

Playing perhaps the toughest schedule in the state, Topeka high school's cagers were able to garner only a 7-won and 12-lost record for the year. The basketballers provided Troy fans plenty of thrills, however, with four overtime contests and many others nearly as close.

The Trojans were defeated decisively only a few times, but seemed to lack the power to come through in the tight ones.

Having only Bill Roberts and Bob McCracken measuring over six feet tall to begin with, the Trojans found rebounds even harder to get after they lost Roberts because of a knee injury.

Beaten in the first round of the state by Wichita East, the basketballers found the defeat easier to take when the Wichitans advanced to the finals and lost to the Newton Railroaders for the championship.

Cheering raises pep for ATHLETICS

RAMBLER CHEERLEADERS

Mary Washington, Eleanor Burton, Marion Knight, Audrey Booth, Mary White, Helen Clardy

Newly-elected Trojan cheerleaders Hutchison, Carothers, and Whitson lead yells in the middle of Kansas Avenue during the Snake Dance

Whether at basketball or football games, Trojan pep hit high tempos this year, with spectators and cheerleaders doing an exhausting job of cheering for Topeka's teams. From old standbys like "Rica Chica Boom" and "Gold, Black, We're back of You" to new chants like "Little Wildcats, Whee-e-e-e, Big Trojans, Wow ! !," cheering progressed through the year, aided by the tireless work of the cheerleaders and pep clubs.

Organized for timing, the pep clubs' cheering even turned to a sing-song "Open the Windows" when the gymnasium got too stuffy, and clapping in unison to the Trojan hand clap to show everyone that

"We're from T.H.S.
We're from T.H.S.
T.H.S.
T.H.S.
Yes, yes, yes ! !"

Dean Smith leaps for Topeka's ball

Interest grows in BASKETBALL

In preparation for possible varsity competition when they are upperclassmen, boys of the "B" team started their games at 6:30 each night that the "A" team was slated for play at 8:15. Mel Seelye coached the reserves.

The "B" team's record was 8-8. Eddie Ridgeway and Charles Nelson left the "B" squad halfway through the season to join the "A" squad and to make a Varsity letter. Alex Luna, Charles Boyd, and Mark Devine showed up well all season with steady improvement in each game: they should give some of the Varsity men trouble next year.

The "Moulden Mites" won the tournament at the close of the season between the winning teams of the Junior and Senior classes and the two highest Sophomore teams.

Season brings wins to RAMBLERS

Topeka High's Ramblers finished the 1948-49 basketball season with a creditable record of seven wins and seven losses against some of the best squads in the area. The Rambler five, led by Coach Merrill Ross, finished in a three-way tie for fourth place in the conference with R. T. Cole and Parsons.

The Ramblers blew hot and cold over the season, but did well considering they had lost most of their starters from last season. Most of the Rambler losses were by small scores, and the season was packed with many thrills.

Jack Alexander led the Ramblers in scoring with a total of 122 points. Harold Washington was second with 86 tallies, while Charles Douglas and Gilbert Carter were third and fourth with 81 and 80 points respectively.

Ramblers top season with HOMECOMING

Down the aisle formed by the Rambler basketball team came Helen Clardy, a Sophomore, to be crowned queen of the Rambler Homecoming game.

The coronation took place between the halves of the Topeka-Fort Scott game in the East Topeka gym. Attendant Nerissa Peoples came forth first, escorted by Richard Douglas, a co-captain of the team. She was followed by attendant Eleanor Burton escorted by Earl Jackson, a team member. Her Majesty the Queen was escorted by Jack Alexander, the other co-captain, to reign for the remainder of the evening.

Queen Helen and her attending ladies were presented corsages of gardenias and pink carnations by Rambler cheerleaders and were honored at a dance at the Downbeat following the game.

Music for programs furnished by

ORCHESTRA

Besides its spring concert the Trojan orchestra played many programs during the school year. Providing music for the operetta, the orchestra played to the first full house in Topeka High's history. Between civic programs and Topeka High plays, the orchestra put in a busy year.

C. J. McKee and Robert Rue coached and directed the orchestra.

BAND

Keeping its yearly tradition, the Trojan band, under the direction of C. J. McKee and Robert Rue, presented its annual concert in the spring. It presided at football and basketball games, and served to keep spirits at a high pitch during pep assemblies.

In addition, members of the band placed high in music festivals. High spot of the year was the band's spring trip.

J. C. Campbell and Bonnie Gordon, "Sweethearts"

Music department presents

"SWEETHEARTS"

Wooden shoes, a princess in disguise, a laundry, a "Slingsbey"... and Topeka High's first full house at a high school production—these are but a few of the memorable highlights of this year's operetta, Victor Herbert's "Sweethearts."

Title song of the show, "Sweethearts," sung by Bonnie Gordon and J. C. Campbell, "On Parade," by the chorus, and "Jeanette's Wooden Shoes," sung by Carol Heath, are among the many gay melodies which were whistled long after the two performances were over.

Nobody was surprised when Max Whitson, portraying the hilarious Mikel, threatened to steal the show! J. C. Campbell, as Prince Franz, captured his listeners with "For Every Lover Must Meet His Fate."

The traditional "long - lost - babe - who - is-really-princess" story unfolded against the colorful settings of J. H. Hoehner's stage craft students and Stage Manager Jose Alonzo and his assistant, Roy Meyers.

"Sweethearts," under the direction of Don M. Gleckler, C. J. McKee, Robert A. Rue and Richard Blehm, was one of the most successful programs ever presented at Topeka High.

SENIOR GLEE CLUBS

With the girls in new uniforms and the boys in trim suits, the two Senior Glee Clubs appeared before civic, church, and social organizations under the direction of Don M. Gleckler.

These two glee clubs are advanced groups for those interested in vocal study. They performed in the Victor Herbert operetta "Sweethearts" and took part in the formal concert in the spring. Although the glee clubs did not appear in any contests as a group, several members and ensembles appeared in the District Music Festival at Lawrence—winning high ratings.

JUNIOR GLEE CLUBS

Many students at Topeka High took advantage of the training offered in the Junior Glee Clubs this year. These classes offer training to students who are not far enough advanced in the vocal field to be in the Senior Glee Clubs.

The Girls' Glee Club appeared in the spring concert, and before many school and church organizations. They also entered the District Music Festival at Lawrence. They are directed by Don M. Gleckler.

The Boys' Glee Club sang in the Christmas Pageant, in assemblies, and at several grade schools. They are under the direction of Richard Blehm.

Trojans learn TRADE

To increase the skills of the people is to increase their income and lift their standard of living. The Topeka Board of Education is therefore especially pleased that it can offer the public the practical opportunities which are available in its new Trade School division.

The entire program is carried on with the advice and counsel of both employers

Upper left: Arder Kanode testing fuses in 3 phase 220 volt circuit in vocational electricity

Center: Donald Root, Dale McKibben and Clifford Corn inspecting finished work in vocational photography

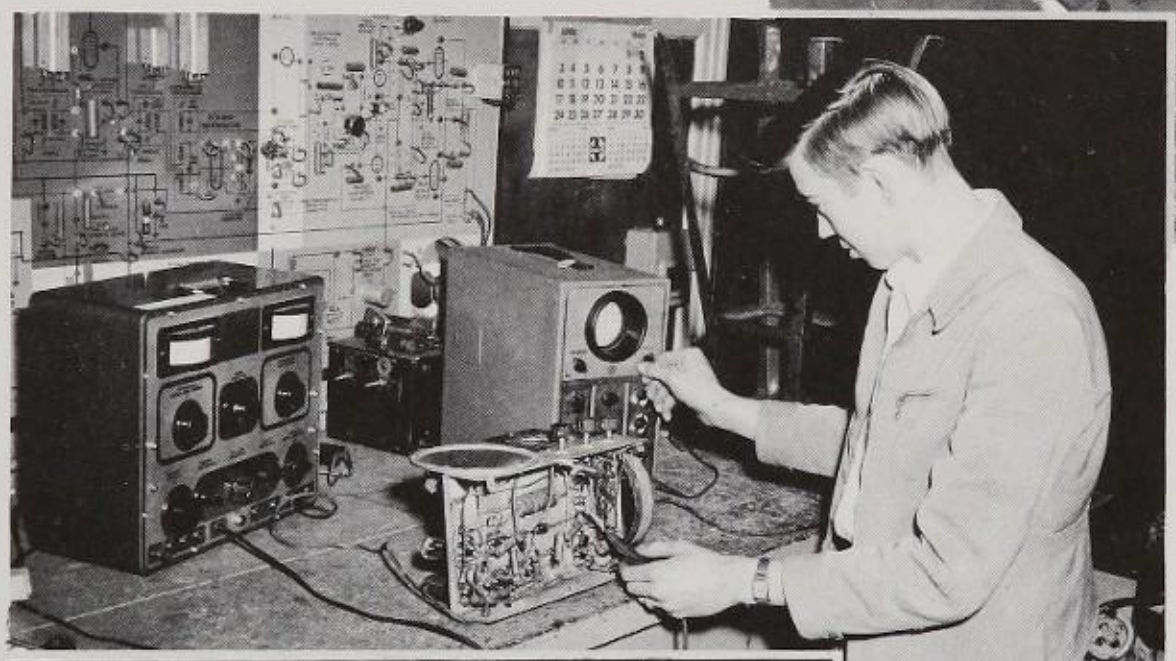
Varied vocations at SCHOOL

and employees in the different Trades of the area.

High School students may continue their Industrial Arts training in this well equipped plant. The downtown, centralized location of the school is advantageous in many ways, especially for adults employed by business and industry.

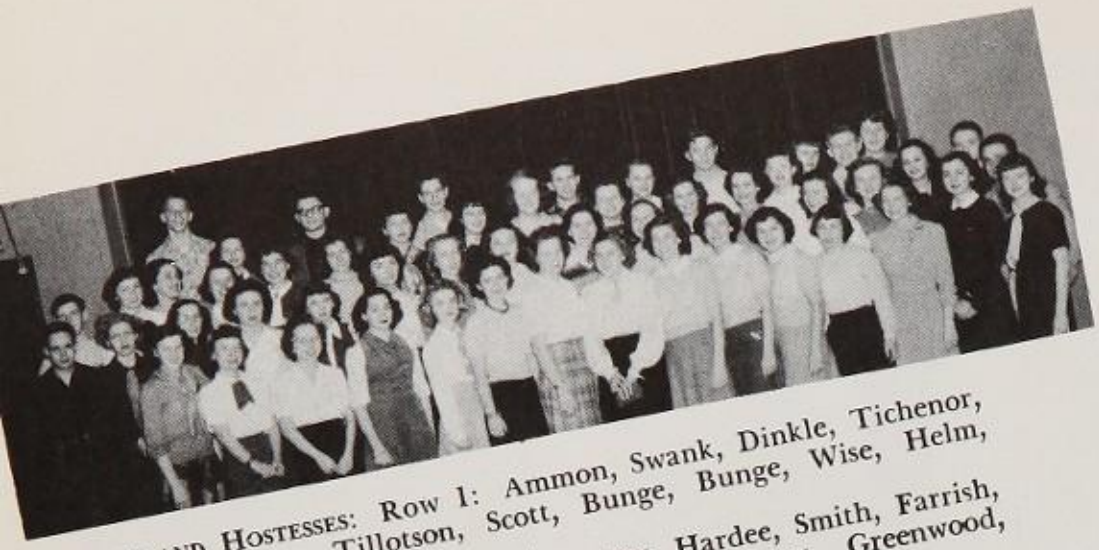


Upper right: Robert Ciertz, a Senior in machine shop, assembles a power lawn mower

Center: Lew Westfall, a Senior, checks for distortion with an oscilloscope in vocational radio

Lower left: Bill Gearhart and Clifford Meyers, Juniors in vocational welding are Fabricating and Heliwelding an aluminum boat

Cadets, proctors, hosts form SERVICE GROUPS



HOSTS AND HOSTESSES: Row 1: Ammon, Swank, Dinkle, Tichenor, Kelly, McClellan, Tillotson, Scott, Bunge, Bunge, Wise, Helm, Carothers, Culver, Miller
Row 2: Messick, Howell, Euwer, Spetter, Hardee, Smith, Farrish, Collins, Cory, Bowman, Mankle, Hunter, Gerry, Greenwood, Thacher, Greer, Gleichenhaus
Row 3: Condray, Marsh, Pressman, Nelson, Towler, Hogle, Holm, Littleton, Friedstrom, Moore, Crosswhite, Parker, Spurgeon, Deitrich
Row 4: Brown, Paramore, Ridgeway, Casper, Koehlar, Brown

VARSITY CADETS: Row 1: Charles Shoyer (Sponsor), Carothers, Heberling, Hunter, Lowther, Joslin
Row 2: Fling, Schmid, Piatt, Harrison, Hale, Paramore
Row 3: Degnan, Payton, Ensign, Culver, Mankle, McWilliams, Taylor, Bowman, Barrett, Riggin
Row 4: Menninger, Zirkle, Nelson, Gearhart, Hayes

HALL PROCTORS: Row 1: Kerbs, Towler, Morrison, Carothers, Stahl, Warner, Atkins, Rosenwald
Row 2: Fink, Honeycutt, Wieligman, Shoemaker, Culver, Sutherin, Barrett, Mankle, Cowger, Geyer

HOSTS AND HOSTESSES

Organized to see that tables and chairs in the cafeteria are kept as neat as possible and that as little breakage as possible results, the Hosts and Hostesses are a group under the sponsorship of Mrs. Esther Kingman and Bill Roberts, Student Proctor Captain. Close to 100 students serve in this capacity.

VARSITY CADETS

To see that varsities progress smoothly is the aim of the Varsity Cadets. Charles Shoyer, faculty sponsor, and the Varsity Cadets manage the business of getting records for the juke box, selling cokes and popcorn at the snack bar, and seeing to it that everyone has a good time at Topeka High's varsities.

HALL PROCTORS

Checking passes, officiating in the interests of the guidance office, and acting as proctors stationed in the corridors, the Hall Proctors compose a large group. E. L. Fink, faculty sponsor, is in charge of the Hall Proctors.

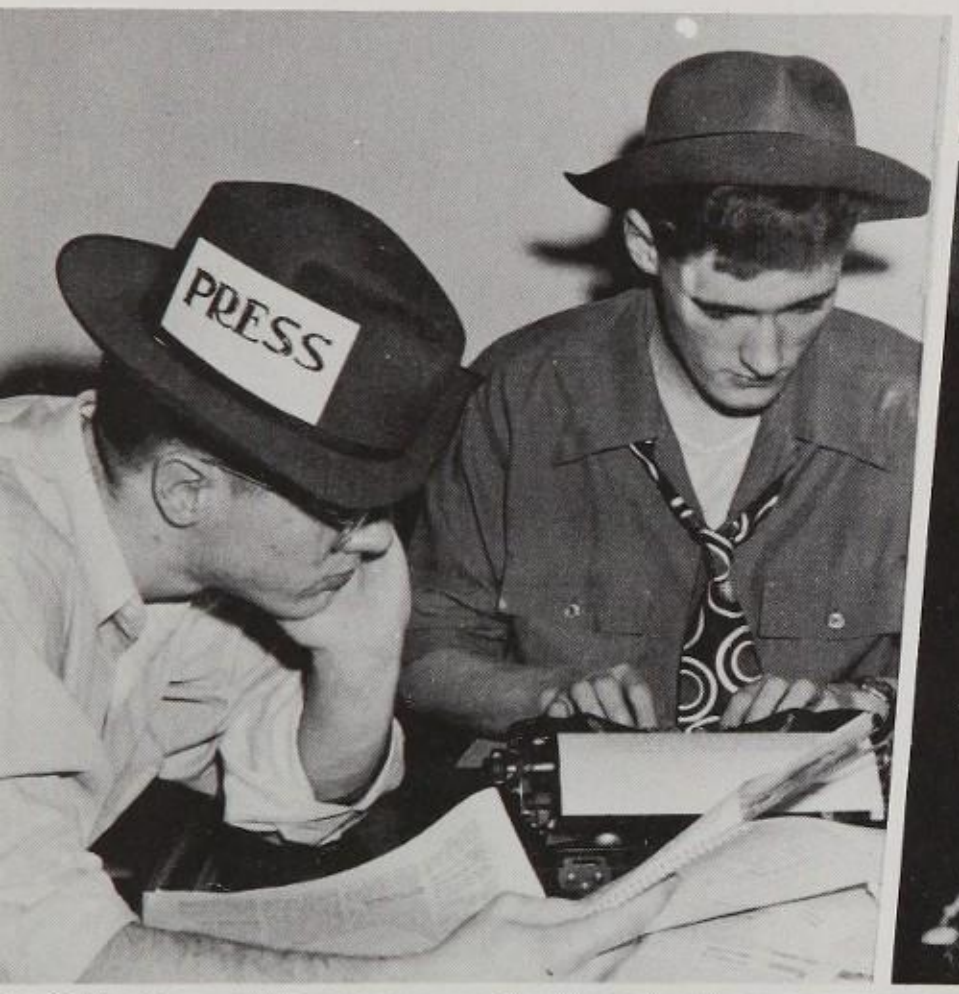
CONCESSION STAND WORKERS

Feeding thirsty, hungry Trojans and guests is the job of the Concession Stand Workers, under the guidance of Charles Shoyer, faculty sponsor. At football and basketball games, these service workers are a vital part of life at Troy.

CONCESSION STAND WORKERS: Seated: Painter, Lott, Spillman, Shoemaker, Deniston (Captains)
Row 1: Pantle, Hanger, Smith, Honeyman, Harrison, Stahl, Atkins, Mankle, Oliver, Sutherin, Wieligman
Row 4: Dykes, Murphy, Tillotson, Cory, Shaw, Payton, Holm, Degnan, Johnson, Charles Shoyer (Sponsor)

Winter HIGHLIGHTS

1. Jan Steck and Carl Nuzman gloat over money won for best costumes at "T" Club's Sadie Hawkins party
2. Jack Shepard and Jack Gentry rush to meet World sport deadlines



3. Orpha Baker and Rollo Gurss dance to Dog Patch music
4. Square dances add hilarity to the Sadie Hawkins party

Spring brings graduation to

THE SENIOR CLASS

Yes, it's over, our breathlessly awaited Senior year. To one Senior, it means fulfillment of many ambitions and hopes. To another it is merely a stepping stone to college, marriage, or a career.

Yet, whatever it means to each one of us individually, we Seniors of 1949 will not forget it. For in our memories, the words, "Senior year" will be synonomous with "Homecoming Game," "All-School Party," "Christmas Formals," "Class Day," and countless events that make up the magic words "Senior year."

Large crowd gathers at SENIOR-ALUMNI DANCE

A record crowd of close to one thousand attended this year's Senior-Alumni dance to be entertained by Master of Ceremonies Jerry Getz, pinch hitting for Bob Taggart, and a program made up of Alumni and the present students.

The cafeteria decorated with a large Trojan head and Gold "T's" swelled with the strains of remembered music, while new Easter costumes brightened the scene.

After an hour of dancing, the punch bowl was besieged with thirsty Trojans and Alumni, and the happy reunion ended for another year.

Spring and Easter parade at JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

"In your Easter Bonnet, with all the frills upon it," you'll be decked out as the Juniors were on the night of the Junior-Senior Prom.

John H. Hoehner and his stagecraft class outdid themselves and succeeded in reproducing a teeming section of Fifth Avenue on Troy's own stage.

Jack Perry's sidewalk cafe had much to offer in the way of entertainment. Tap dancing by Muriel Dexter afforded Dick Dennis his opportunity for hilarious pantomine, which he continued to supply throughout the show.

Changing the mood, Charles Axton delivered an engaging discourse on "Sally of Our Alley," with self-accompaniment on the ivories.

The surprise of the evening came when Miss Ethel "An-wanw" Frizell marched onto the stage, complete with her Christmas tree.

Amos Howard ended the program with the "You'll be the Sweetest Lady in the Easter Parade;" then the Prom continued in the cafeteria.

Under the general direction of Annette Huke and faculty adviser Mrs. Fayeben Wolfe, the Juniors "Easter Paraded" through a fine prom.

Margaret Moore, Mary Ann Paramore, and "Itchy" Dick Dennis chat with "Cop" Bob Walker.

Richard Mai, Jerry Bray, and Keith Schulte tell the sad story of Frankie and Johnny—with the accompaniment of a uke and Phil Dangerfield

Juniors and Seniors mingle and the cafeteria is filled with rustling skirts and gay music.

Charles Axton ad-libs his never-the-same piano routine.

Walt "Grandpa" Menninger beamingly gives thanks as Gleichenhaus, Oliver, Green, Long, Carlson, Herrick, Seufert, Jones, Bradstreet, and Hunter prayerfully bow their heads

Seniors present zany comedy

'YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU'

Snakes, fireworks, and a kitten named Groucho were all a part of the crazy combination that made the Senior play, "You Can't Take It With You," the laugh hit of the year.

The plot centered around the eccentric Sycamore family, headed by Grandpa (Walter Menninger) and the one sensible daughter, portrayed by Ardith Jones, in love with the boss's son Tony (Bob Bradstreet).

Penny (Martha Herrick) and Mr. DePinna (Carl Seufert) brought roars of laughter from the audience. To the satisfaction of all, a happy ending was finally managed. Long hours of work put in by the cast, staffs, Miss Gertrude Wheeler, dramatics director, and Miss Ruth Grandon, in charge of business, accounted for the success of the play. Staging was done by J. H. Hoehner and the stage craft classes.

Bedlam rages amid fireworks, police inquiries, and hilarious Theo Westlund's raucous singing

Second semester news makes up

SPRING WORLD

Opening with a bang, the second semester brought plenty of news for World reporters. Under the direction of Editor Bob Longstaff and Business Manager Jack Koehlar, the staffs not only kept up with a crowded calendar, but also supervised the work of the Junior Press on one issue, startled the school with a screaming April 1 number, helped edit one day's editions of the Topeka State Journal, and stood by while their successors, under Hugh Groendycke and Bill Carpenter tried their wings in preparation for next fall.

Winter and early Spring bring

TRACK, WRESTLING, SWIMMING

SWIMMING

Under the coaching of Charles Mills, Troy's fourteen man swimming team participated in eight meets this year. This is the fourth year Topeka High School has entered in this sport. Skip Dickinson, placed second at the state meet in the 100 yard breast stroke.

WRESTLING

Floyd Holcomb, wrestling coach, guided the wrestling team through winter meets and early spring encounters. Wrestling both on the home mats and in out-of-town schools, the team displayed skill and ever-increasing good sportmanship.

TRACK

Starting to train while snow still lined the sidewalks around Troy, the track team showed up favorably in meets all through the season. On April 22, at the K.U. Relays for High Schools, Topeka won third place. D. L. Erwin took over the reins again this year as coach.

SWIMMING: Row 1. Denton, Lyngar, Ashley, Bardsley, Smith, Schmidt, Sleeper,
Row 2. Bailey, Scott, Allen, Vallely, Greer, Charles Mills (Coach) Dickinson Bunten, Pitcher, Munns (Manager), Moore

Trojans engage in SPRING SPORTS

TENNIS

Coached by W. J. Barnett, the 1949 tennis team continued its brilliant record, giving every indication of retaining the state championship it has held for many years. Phil Blackburn, Terry Jaquith, Richard Hadley, and Charles Keith started the season with straight wins. Even Hutchinson, with its top-notch players, failed to break the string of victories.

GOLF

E. L. Fink, faculty sponsor for the golf squad, started his proteges out right with a 12-0 win over Leavenworth April 1. The season continued to be predominantly successful, with stiff competition in almost every meet. Bill Barter, Dale Higgs, Lee Neeley, and Connie Sneller were the star linksmen.

BASEBALL

Playing home games at Washburn University and making a good showing at out-of-town games, the Topeka High baseball team, under the tutelage of Frank McGrath, physical education teacher at Roosevelt Junior High, was just beginning to get into stride when this book went to press. It has faced a hard schedule.

BASEBALL: Row 1: Dennis (Manager), Johnson, Coffman, Butler, Harrison, Smith, Alberg, Kincaid
Row 2: Roberts, Shepard, Grisham, Steinmeyer, Ginavan, Shull, Roberts, Darr, Franzke, Linsacum, Frank McGrath (Coach)

Year's events recorded in 'SUNFLOWER'

This is your Sunflower. Its purpose is to follow the sunshine of your school days as faithfully as the flower for which it is named follows the sun. We hope that when you open your annual, whether it is today or a decade hence, bright, golden memories will come forth to delight you; that your years at Troy will be restored.

The problems and responsibilities of editing the annual were shouldered by Jeanne Bowman, Editor, Virginia Bartos, Associate Editor, Jane Romig, Business Manager, and Miss Ruth E. Hunt, Sponsor and Advisor.

Late hours, sighs of relief, and a restful feeling of success are a part of the finished yearbook. Your Sunflower comes to you with the wish that each leaf may be as gay, as sad, and as wonderful as your youth—a bouquet of remembrances from the 1949 Sunflower staff.

Of course, the Senior holds in memory dear
The proms, the plays, the dances bright and gay,
The parties where the King and Queen held sway,
The football games, and all the rousing cheer
Of campaign stunts when voting day was near;
And he'll remember all along the way,,
The friends he knew and every happy day
Spent underneath the tower his Senior year;
And most of all he'll cherish lessons learned
In classrooms and athletic contests rife;
For in the struggles here the victories earned
Send him toward worthy goals of larger strife.
The golden helmet on his heart has burned
And Trojan valor he can hold for life.

AIRPLANE VIEW OF WASHBURN UNIVERSITY

Washburn is set in an attractive place, framed by a landscape of cedars and old elm, and vignetted by the customary ivy.

- Following the tradition of liberal education long established in this country, Washburn aims to graduate men and women who are intellectually competent and emotionally mature, qualified for both leadership and discriminating cooperation. New courses in professional training, such as the Bachelor of Business Administration, enable students to prepare effectively for the demands of a new world.

- The College of Liberal Arts is accredited by the Kansas State Board of Education, the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools, and the Association of American Universities. Washburn alumnae are admitted to membership in the American Association of University Women.

- The School of Law is a member of the Association of American Law Schools, and conforms to its standards of excellence in library, teaching staff, and scholarship. The school is also on the list approved by the American Bar Association. Its location in the capital city provides students opportunity to attend and observe the procedure of a variety of courts, and the chance to meet and become acquainted with the best minds of the legal profession to be found in Kansas.

- An enlarged faculty keeps Washburn classes small and individual contacts possible. A very important part of education takes place through an informal intermingling of students and faculty in a democratic atmosphere. The new Student Building will contribute greatly to a finer student spirit on the Washburn campus.

Summer session announcements and the University catalog will be supplied upon request.
